PINK COAT'S GALLANT SON,

PINKOLA MAKES IT SEVEN WINNING RACES IN A ROW.

New Orleans Fair Grounds Meeting Opens with a Heavy Track-Dainty Belle Scores Again.

New Orleans, La., December 9.-The opening of Fair Grounds was marred by weather and numerous withdrawals from the dif-Despite the unfavorable weather ditions a good crowd was in attendance.

The Fizer luck still continues and that horses captured two races here today, including the Inaugural Handicap, worth $2,000 net to the winner. His two-year-old Pinkola was the victor in the feature race, and his win was a lucky one, as Keator in the going, was best and only lost out on account of the poor ride that Brussel gave him. Pinkola started favorite in the speculation, but the weight of money supporting Keator caused him to supplant Fizer youngster towards post time. Pinkola broke from an outside position and, under vigorous riding, was sent into a long lead. He maintained a steady pace for the first half, but when straightened out for the stretch run began tiring fast, and Keator, which left the post slowly, was wearing him down with a good burst of speed. When it appeared that Keator was going to pass Pinkola, Brussel became rattled and allowed him to swerve to the inner rail, and before he could get him fully straightened and settled again in his stride, the finish was reached with Keator a scant length behind. Lens, on his showing, considering that the track was unfavorable to him, put up a good performance. Tartar Maid, Sally Preston, The Bear, Prince Ahmed, Momentum, Chapultepec and Jack Atkin were withdrawn. De Oro and Grimaldi were added. At no stage did any in back of the placed horses figure strongly as contenders.

The other Fizer victory came in the third race, when Al Muller made a show of his opponents and only had to canter all the way. Jockey Minder rode cluding the racing of December 7, is as follows:

 Year.

It was only fitting that the first purse of the meeting should go to L. A. Cella's La Souer. The favorite, Donaldo, for a time threatened to spread-eagle the others, but in the stretch run he tired fast and allowed La Souer to canter by him.

Dainty Belle upset the calculations of the talent taking the second rather easily from a good field of platers. The poor showing of Druid, the odds on favorite, was disappointing, as she failed to get a place.

Another upset resulted with the running of the fifth, when Tileing, considered the best betting proposition of the afternoon, was beaten out by Mortiboy, backed extensively by a smart coterie. Tileing, under better riding, would have won. maceo's showing in this race was too bad to be a true line to his capabilities.

McCluer, in the closing race, was the fourth outsider during the afternoon to win. Vincentio, the favorite, was distanced after going a quarter

For the first time since the rupture in turf ranks. resulted in the formation of the American Turf Association, Edward Corrigan's colors were in evidence at this track. He was represented by Muren, in the first race, Goldway in the second and Anna Day in the last.

The recent severe rainy weather gave the workmen a setback and many minor details were in a crude state for the opening. The judges' stand was not entirely finished and many of the workmen were still laboring during the afternoon to put it in pr sentable condition. Several shifts of workmen will be kept at work during the night straightening out the unfinished work.

During the morning hours word was received from starter Cassidy stating that he would remain in east at least until Thursday. If his wife's condition is improved by that time he will leave for New Orleans and probably will be handling the barrier next Monday.

SANTA ANITA RACING PLEASES ALL. ENGLISH AND AMERICAN JOCKEYS.

Good Attendance and Excellent Contests Mark Second Day at the New Plant.

Los Angeles, Cal., December 9 .- A Monday crowd of flattering proportions was present today, witnessing an afternoon of fairly good racing. Judging from today's turn-out the management need have no fear of Santa Anita's success. Workmen are fast putting on the finishing touches and the plant will be in first-class condition by the end of the week. Many stables are fast going up and this is the only drawback at present.

Secretary E. C. Smith presented an excellent card, several of the races of which filled to unwieldy proportions Carman's run of luck still serves him well, for he put over Rifleman and Friar of Elgin, the latter winning at fair odds. Rifleman gave promise of being a useful racer this winter by easily picking up 120 pounds and overwhelming Botanist in the final sixteenth when the latter appeared to have things his own way. Rifleman's superiority was marked, for he won by a big margin going away fast.

The rest of the card was of mediocre quality. Speculation was brisker and heavier today and gives promise of steadily improving.

John Ireland got in today with two carloads of horses, which will be turned over to the care of

THIRTY LEADING JOCKEYS.

The lightweight, G. Burns, gained the ranks of the thirty leaders last week, riding seven winners, three at Oakland and four, Saturday the opening day at Santa Anita Park, making a total of twentyseven winners ridden by him in the last twenty-five days. Eight was the high mark for winners ridden last week, Walter Miller having that number to his credit, while R. McDaniel and Notter were each home in front six times. R. C. RANN GOES TO NEW ORLEANS.

Lexington, Ky., December 9.-R. L. Baker has changed his plans regarding the future of his recent acquisition, R. C. Rann, for which he paid $3,500 last day of the Lexington sale here At that time Mr. Baker announced that R. C. Ram would remain in Kentucky during the winter and prepared for the Kentucky Derby next spring by brother. The latest plan is to send him New Orleans, together with Mae Hamilton, in the shipment J. C. Milam will send south for winter racing shortly after the holidays. Mr. Baker believes that a few races run at New Orleans rather help than retard the preparation of the colt for the big stake race next spring.

LOUISVILLE TRACKS PASSED BY.

Louisville, Ky., December 9 -- After a two days ession of wrangling and discussion, the State Board of Agriculture has finally decided to purchase the McDonald site of 150 acres which adjoins Shawned Park just west of this city as the permanent home of the State Fair. The purchase of other sites as well as both of the race tracks here, Churchill Downs and Douglas Park, were thoroughly canvassed but the fact that the McDonald tract could be se cured for $60,000, leaving a balance of $117,000 in the treasury and the fact that it is also near the city, were the controlling elements in reaching a final decision.

BENNETT RETAINS SOME BROODMARES

Lexington, Ky., December 9.—George C. B who announced his retirement as a breeder of thoroughbreds last fall, has withdrawn that anno ment to the extent that he will be obliged to carry some twenty mares at Ridgeway Stud. about decided to convert the farm into a dairy and will embark in the new enterprise in the spring. No stallion is now standing at Ridgeway and the mares there will be bred to outside stallions next spring.

English racing folks has grown accustomed to the annexation by D. Maher of a big proportion of the year's chief races, and the season of 1907 has proved no exception: A glance at Maher's figures show that he has well maintained the splendid average standing to his credit ever since his arrival in England and this is all the more remarkable in that the popular American cannot ride at a weight much lower than 117 pounds and in consequence his sphere is an exceedingly limited one. Yet he comes out an easy first as regards percentage of wins to mounts, and he is distinctly the jockey to be followed by systematic backers. Commencing with a Liverpool Spring Cup success on Bridge of Canny, Maher captured the Queen's Prize at Kempton on the same horse. In quick succession other big prizes fell to his prowess, amongst others being and Gold Vase, Prince of Ascot Derby Stakes and King's Stand Stakes, British Dominion and Princess of Wales' Stakes, Great Lancashire Breeders' Stakes and Liverpool Summer Cup, Rich Lavant and Nassau Stakes at Goodwood, Great Yorkshire Stakes, Champagne Stakes, Great Yorkshire Handicap, Imperial Produce Plate (dead heat), Middle Park Plate and many others-truly a formidable list. For once in a way "Danny" put in an appearance on the last day of the season and not unprofitably so, and his numerous friends will wish him an enjoyable period in the hunting field, wherein he hopes to find relaxation for a month or two Maher rode for the first time in England in September, 1900, the mount being a winning one. Has won three Derbys, and nearly every race of importance in this country. Next season he rides for Lord Derby, who will have first and only claim for s and the patrons of G. Blackwell's stable.

Commenting on the other leading English jockeys the Sporting Life says:

"W. Higgs, who heads the list for the second time, formerly rode successfully in Ireland, where he was chieflly associated with J. C. Sullivan, owner of Winkfield's Pride, The Page, War Wolf and other well known horses. His appearances in the saddle in England were infrequent until 1905, when he was induced by Mr. Sullivan to desert the Emerald Isle, with the happiest results, for he once came to the front. Higgs rides as first jockey to the Beckhampton Stable, and his other employers include, of course, his old master, Mr. Sullivan. Rode five winners in one day at New bury September.

"W. Halsey, whose chief employer during recent years has been Sir Ernest Cassel, was formerly a trainer and jockey under National Hunt Rules He turned out many winners of both steeplechase and hurdle races, but finding that his services were in some demand for flat race riding, he elected to confine himself to the latter sport. Though by no means so young as the majority of his fellow riders, Halsey has few, if any, equals in his profession

"H. Randall for some years prior to 1902 rode as an amateur and met with considerable success. In the year named he decided to join the professiona ranks and has ever since occupied a prominent position. Is a son of the well known Northampto sportsman, Sir Henry Randall and has been chiefly associated with the Wantage Stable, presided over by E. Robson, to whom he was sent in the first place for tuition in race riding. Rode the famous Sceptre in most of her races. Next season is to as first jockey to S. B. Joel. ride

"William Griggs, who was apprenticed to Robert Sherwood, at St. Gatien House, Newmarket, subse quently rode for Lord Durham, but this year a as first jockey to Sir R. W. B. Jardine, Bart., the engagement is understood to have been rene engagement is understood to have been engagement is a son of the well-known

FEATURELESS RACING DAY.

ORDINARY SELLING PLATERS CONTEST FOR PURSES OVER MUDDY TRACK.

Tayora Beats Some Fast Sprinters-Grace G. Comes Out in Good Form-Reported Attempt at Bribery.

Oakland, Cal., December 9.-Friday last, it is alleged, an unsuccessful attempt was made to bribe jockey Pendergast to pull the horse Captain Burnett in the fifth race. This much, it is reported, was revealed during the morning by the jockey himself to J. R. Jeffrey, an inquisitive local turf reporter. Pendergast is said to have explained that he would not go into details, nor give the name of the man who had tried to bribe him until he had consulted with presiding steward E. C. Hopper. This he expected to do immediately after the close of the afternon's racing. Captain Burnett's performance in running a good second to the fast Woodlands-bred Tavora was not quite up to his very best form and Pendergast's reported assertion that he had refused to entertain the proposition is believable.

The fact that today's entire card was conditioned for horses of the selling variety, and that the going was muddy and necessarily deceptive, failed to deter a big off-day crowd from witnessing the Every one of the six races developed keen and interesting contests. Not a single favorite, however, made good. This did not necessarily indicate an entire absence of form in the running. On the contrary, the ring favorites all down the line, Orchota, Gannet, Bye Bye II., Jack Adams, Ovelando and Cloudlight were of the doubtful variety and in no single instance could the result be properly termed an upset. Victory reverted to best horses in nearly every race.

E. Lynch did the best work with two wins and one second to his credit. Hayes, Keough and Heatherton took three races between them. Walter Miller finished last in the first and fourth, and fourth on Ovelando, a hot favorite, and finally wound up a disastrous afternoon's saddle work with a victory on Tayora at 14 to 5 in the last.

The remaining thirty-nine head of thoroughbreds of the Carman string left for Arcadia today. man will be sent on to compete in the Christmas Handicap at Oakland.

Jack Atkin may be permanently stationed here to look after local entries in the Santa Anita Stakes.

disposed of Art Critic today to O. F. Johnson. The trainer of the Emery string will return to New York after the holidays and resume training Master

Robert, Arasee and five promising yearlings.

The paddock stalls have been inclosed by a fence.

No one will be permitted inside of this barrier except the owner, trainer, jockey and immediate attendants of the starter in any race.

Seventeen yearlings from the Ormondale Farm are to be sold Wednesday, December 18.

HORSES AT NEW YORK HEALTHY.

New York, December 9.—There are nearly 1,000 race horses wintering at the race tracks on Long Island this year. The trainers of stables which are raced exclusively on the metropolitan tracks, have decided almost to a man that it does not pay to ship their charges south for the winter, only cases where that has been done this fall were when the owner maintained a winter establishment in the southern states. The liability of horses meeting with accidents on the cars down and back and the additional risk in subjecting them to changes of climate, thereby contracting bad colds which have prevented some horses in past years from regaining their form until late in the season, in some instances not during the year, are de terring elements. There will be a few who will ship to Hot Springs later in the winter if there any prospect of racing being resumed there next spring.

KENTUCKY RACING COMMISSION SAFE.

Lexington, Ky., December 9.—Although a report to the contrary has been circulated it is not prob able that the newly elected Republican governor of Kentucky will attempt to appoint a new State Racing Commission. The law creating the commission was passed in March, 1906, and provides "the members of said commission shall hold their offices for a term of four years, and the first commission shall be appointed (by the governor) within twenty days after this act shall go into effect." Except there be death or resignation, the terms of the present commissioners, Messrs. J. P. Chinn, of Harrodsburg; E. F. Clay, of Paris; Milton Young, of Lexington; Charles F. Grainger, of Louisville, and Louis Descognets, of Lexington, will not expire until March, 1910. They have served acceptably so far and there is no tangible reason for a change.

MANAGERIAL CHANGES.

Lexington, Ky., December 9.—William Baker, who has resigned as manager of Idle Hour Farm. will return to his old home in Missouri. Cliff Hammond, who will succeed him, resigned his connection with the Senorita Stud of W. Harry Brown. No appointment has been am garding a new manager for Senorita Stud.

ESTIMATE OF NEW ORLEANS JOCKEYS

New Orleans, La., December 9.—Notter looks like the best rider here. Charlie Ellison has a contract on him for the winter, and under his careful management Notter will probably be at the head of the of winning jockeys when the season closes. Nicol has been unfortunate in that he has earned the displeasure of the starter and has been on the ground all but a couple of days. Jimmy McCormick's boy, is a clever little rider for a lightweight, but he is too small. With another year's experience and a little more weight Sumter should develop into a star. McCormick thinks a lot of this lad and keeps him at home with him. Detaby is an in-and-outer. This lad is an enigma, Watkins, who has him under contract, has great faith in the boy, and, despite the advice of officials, who recommended that he be given a rest he still continues to ride him. Koerner, the is a clever horseman, and so is Mountain. Minder been riding well and is in good form. balance are a bad bunch. In all there are about 100 jockeys here this winter, and less than a dozen of them can be styled good riders.

GALLANTRY IS FINALLY REDEEMED.

Lexington, Ky., December 9 .- Gallantry was sold today for $30 to R. D. Cobb and will find a home at Syracuse, N. Y. Gallantry was consigned to the Fasig-Tipton sale by Milton Young. He was knocked down to a man named Gallagher from Texas for $50, who did not pay for him. He was left at the Wilson stable and today was put up at auction in the public square. A horse trader bought him for $24. Mr. Cobb, standing by, decided that the old horse was worthy of a better law bartered and exchanged on every court day and bartered and exchanged on every court day and was worthy of a better fate than being kin have this here stud horse for $30," said the Mr. Cobb bought him forthwith and will send him east next week.

Thursby, and for him and other owners associated Boveridge Stable rode a large number of winners. In recent years rode chiefly for Charles Hibbert, but is stated to be engaged to the Manton Stable for 1908. Has twice performed the feat of steering five winners in one day.

"E. Wheatley rides for W. Elsey, the Baumbe trainer, to whom he was formerly apprenticed. Headed the list of successful jockeys in 1905.

"O. Madden was born in Germany, but graduated under R. Marsh's tuition at Newmarket. First claim upon his services has for some years been held by the patrons of Manton House, but it is said that the retainer is not to be renewed in 1908. Madden has headed the list of winning jockeys on four occasions.

"H. Jones, familiarly known as 'the king's jockey,' is a member of a family long connected with the royal stables. Became prominent through his successful handling of Diamond Jubilee, upon whom he won the 'Triple Crown' and many other valuable races, and has a great reputation as a skilful rider of wayward and bad-tempered animals.

"B. Lynham, son of F. Lynham, trainer, of Rot tingdean, Sussex, is a highly popular horseman and rode for Colonel Hall Walker and L. de Roths child this year. Leaves England to ride next season in France (where he was born), under a three years' engagement with M. Caillault.

"B. Dillon is of Irish birth, and was for some years attached to Fallon's Netheravon Stable, for the patrons of which-W. B. Purefoy, A. P. Cunliffe, and other gentlemen—he won many valuable races. Still rides for the establishment when not required by Major Eustace Loder and the Clare haven House patrons, who have first claim.'

Lexington, Ky., December 9.-W. B. Nichol, a boyish looking chap who hails from Waterloo, Ontario, and who, it will be remembered, bought the horse Garnish from Bob Rogers after he had been ruled off in the east, left here Saturday for his home in Canada. Mr. Nichol departed rather sooner than he expected and he left behind an fellow-countryman who has a tale to tell that will not help the standing of the man from Waterloo when he takes up the circuit of small tracks in Manitoba and Alberta again next sum-

When Nichol came here last week the sales were in progress and he said he expected to buy three or four nice yearlings. He said a friend of his would swap him some Canadian land for the hors he would buy. He couldn't get anything out of the sales, but he visited around among the horsemen and finally located a couple of fillies at Elmendorf. The folks out there were willing to let them go cheap. The probabilities are that they would have them to him if he had promised to feed them, for they did let him take them to the Kentucky Association track and put them in a barn without paying for them.

The remainder of the story is best told in the language of the irate man, who is John Fry, a real estate broker at Brandon, Manitoba, and like wise the secretary of the half-mile track there "Nichol has been coming up our way for a year or two or three," said he to Daily Racing Form, "and I thought he was all right. I have made some oney out of land, love horses and got to the point where I can afford to own a few, though I have not been long enough interested to know much about the politics of racing or the practices of tricksters in buying and selling.

"Last summer Nichol came along with the horse Garnish and I bought him for $1,000. He looked like a mighty good race horse to me, and he is a good race horse, but I did not know anything about his having been ruled off the turf. If I had would not have bought him, for I am not the sort that would try to race a banished horse. I have written a letter or two to the Jockey Club about Garnish and from the way things stand I doubt if there is a chance of getting him reinstated. This man Farley, who has the reputation of racing ringers, was up in our country with old man Klein who comes from around Chicago, and Farley wanted the horse from me. He has since written me from Texas wanting him, but I have made up my mind to keep him out of the hands of anybody I think might want to cheat with him and if I can't get him reinstated he will stay around my barn as riding horse. I can use him in the real estate

"Well. Nichol made me believe that he did not know Garnish was ruled off, and when he came around this fall with a proposition to come down to Kentucky and swap some of my land for a couple or so good horses I told him to go ahead. He wired me from here that he had picked out a filly at $1,500 and another at $900, and wired me to send on the deed to $2,400 worth of land, giving me the name of the man to whom the deed should be made. I had the papers drawn up and was on the verge of mailing them when I concluded that since I had seen this country and had the time to spare I would just run down here with the papers my-

"I did not wire Nichol that I was coming. Just said 'papers are on the way.' was, to be sure, surprised to see me. I had expected that he would be, but not for the reason that afterward developed. He told me that he had the horses out at the track and took me out there to see them. I did not like the looks of them and and told him so. Honest, I would not have given $300 for the two of them. He said he had closed the deal and would be compelled to take them. I told him to show me the man that he had been dealing with and that I would call the deal off. He said the man was out of town and wanted me to leave the deed to the land and go on back hom and let him do the best he could. I began to suspect that there was something crooked ab it all, and began talking around among people here. I soon found out that Nichol had not agreed to swap the land for them, but had set a price at $250 for the two, and that he had arranged to pay for them himself and then take over the deed to my $2,400 of land as his own.

"I called the whole thing off, and when the gentleman who owned the horses heard of it he sent a man in and got them. I was mad enough to have punched Nichol's head, and would have done it if we had been up in Canada, but I was afraid to do it down here. I have since learned that a fellow gets a medal here when he lambasts a bucko like that. I have found out, too, that horses don't cost near as much down here as we have been in the habit of paying up our way, and I am coming down next March and buy three or four good ones that can win on the half-mile tracks. There are som folks in my town that I would like to beat. have ten horses now, but. Garnish is the only one that can really run and I can't race him."

INCREASED EASTERN STAKE VALUES.

The Coney Island Jockey Club, Brooklyn Jockey Club and Brighton Beach Racing Association have announced big lists of rich stakes to close for entries January 2, 1908. In doing so the two first named organizations make material additions to the value of a number of their long established fixtures, but the Brighton Beach Racing Association stands pat and makes no change from the values of last year. The Brooklyn Jockey Club has added one the Castleton Stakes for two-year-old fillies at five furlongs, with $2,500 added. The increases announced are as follows, the Suburban and Brooklyn being guaranteed values and the others added money:

Announcement of the raising of values by the Coney Island Jockey Club was made some time back, but nothing was made known then as to what the other New York clubs would do. It was assumed, however, that they would emulate the enterprising and encouraging example of the premier racing or ganization. This the Brooklyn Jockey Club has done in good style and it is surprising that the prosperous Brighton Beach Racing Association not pursued the same course. It is now in order to await the action of the Westchester Racing Asso ciation along the same lines. It should be said that the increases noted are not all that are to be made. Stakes that are to close on other dates are also to be raised in value.

VETERAN HUZZAH STILL BACING

The eight-year-old brown gelding, Huzzah, which raced on all of the middle west tracks in the colors of James Arthur since he was a two-yearis now racing at Oakland owned and trained by V. Hughes. Hughes last winter raced at Orleans and met Arthur late one afternoon when Arthur was considerably behind in his speculative operations and Hughes suggested a way to get even on the day. Arthur proceeded to act on the suggestion and Arthur gave Hughes his horse Huzzah for getting him out of a tight Huzzah has run one good race for Hughes place. on the coast. He ran some good races during his career and may show some of his old time the coast. He ran some good races during form before the winter is over. Huzzah has done most of his racing over a considerable distance of ground, but was considered a poor breaker and invariably trailed until in the last six furlongs, when he would close up with a brilliant sprint. If he did manage to get away in front, he would lead by a big margin for the first half and then general form would indicate that he was intended for a sprinter. Several years ago the son of Hermence—Complete developed a bad temper and was feared by the attendants of the Owner Arthur had him gelded and he has been kind in disposition since. CAUSE OF NEW ORLEANS TROUBLE.

New Orleans, La., December 9.—The carnival of racing which has been in operation continuously since last spring at the half-mile track across from City Park track, has aroused a sentiment which may do away with the entire business. There is no question but that the local people are in favor racing at the big tracks, where the sport is conducted on a high basis. Winter racing does a lot for New Orleans and almost every class of merchant derives some sort of benefit from it. half-mile merry-go-rounds depend entirely on the local element for support and naturally this means a constant drain throughout the year. There is a of talk of a racing commission which would regulate the sport and confine it to the winter months. Naturally this move will find the mana matter of fact, have been introducing all sorts of reforms to cut away from the chances of cheating and the causes of scandal, and which have really accomplished much in this respect.

NOTES OF THE TURE

William Shields is wintering his stable in two divisions this year. One is quartered at the Benning track and the other, consisting of nine head, is stabled at Gravesend.

C. W. Moore, of Mere Hill Stud, is of the opinion that the young brood mare Intense, by Ingoldsby— Sankara, will not breed. If this proves true, she will be used as a driving mare.

It is reported that James B. Haggin has closed a deal through his manager of Elmendorf Stud to send Hamburg Belle to the court of Sain at Wood lands Farm in Missouri next spring.

Trainer S. J. Lawler, of the F. J. Carroll stable, is wintering the string of twenty head at the Rollins Farm, near Lakewood, New Jersey, and reports them to be all wintering well, especially Blue

Matt Allen is spending a few days at the farm of George H. Whitney, where James B. Brady's Oiseau and Water Light and several of his mares are quartered. He will journey on to the east

Six yearlings, bred by Dr. J. D. Neet at the Kindergarten Stud, Versailles, Ky., have been shipped to the Kentucky Association course at Lexington, where they will be trained by their new owner, Frank Mosby.

The horses of J. Singleton, J. M. Stokes, F. M. Martin, J. Bright, D. Jarrett, L. W. Sears and Kraft Bros., which have been racing on the Texas circuit, are now at Santa Anita Park, where they will be raced during the meeting.

William McDaniel, who has for the past six years handled the horses of William Gerst, the Nashville turfman, is spending the first vacation he has had in many years at Sheepshead Bay, where he will remain for several weeks.

The Burlew & O'Neill yearlings which are wintering at Gravesend in charge of Joe Kelly are re-ported to be doing well. The California bred youngsters in the band are said to be enjoying their first experience running in the snow on the Morris McKnight, formerly well known at the local and middle west tracks, but making his home for the last few years in Kansas City, died there last Sunday. He was engaged for a number of years as an assistant starter and was a brother of starter Arthur McKnight.

Henry McDaniel, who is training for R. L. Thomas at Santa Anita Park, has purchased the Grove House at Sheepshead Bay from Daniel Hefner. The hotel is one of the oldest about the track and is a favorite resort for horsemen, both in and out of the racing season

Julius Bauer has fourteen horses at Gravesend, which he will ship to his farm near Lexington the latter part of the week. Several of the horses he believes have the necessary conformation for suc-cessful racing through the field and he will endeavor to develop steeplechasers out of them next
